Treeline Regional Director Kathleen Mauriot is named among the Top 10 Recruiters by Women's Business Boston Magazine

Wakefield, Massachusetts: October 15, 2008: Treeline Regional Director Kathleen Mauriot has been named among the Top 10 Recruiters by Women's Business Boston, a Herald Media Publication, in its October 2008 issue. Each month, Women's Business ranks leaders and luminaries in various industries. Mauriot has 20 years of experience in sales force recruitment. She oversees Treeline's entire sales force and has been instrumental in making Treeline one of the nation's largest staffing firms.

According to long-time client Christine Parsons Terracciano, "Kathleen has excelled at keeping her team focused on our hiring needs...she has proactively reached out on numerous occasions to identify areas of improvement...and has taken great care and concern in presenting us with only the highest quality of candidates. Kathleen exudes a confidence and professionalism that does not go unnoticed."

"I am thrilled to have been included among these dynamic women, said Mauriot, "It's incredibly flattering to be listed alongside such leaders of the recruiting community. I'd like to thank the entire Treeline team for their tireless efforts and continued support."

In addition to being named as one of the Top 10 Women in Recruiting by Women's Business Boston Magazine, Mauriot was recently named as a Stevie Award Women in Business Finalist in the Best Executive category.
