Treeline Celebrates its Fifth Anniversary

March 6, 2006, Wakefield, Massachusetts: Treeline, Inc., one of the area's fastest growing executive search firms, is celebrating the fifth anniversary this month. Treeline's Managing Partner Dan Fantasia incorporated the company in March 2001. It is one of the few executive search firms to focus exclusively on sales recruitment.

Fantasia faced challenges early on – an economic downturn and a non-compete with a former employer precluded him from initially focusing on the technology industry - the company has now enjoyed five straight years of record double- and triple-digit growth.

Today, Treeline's niche client base has grown to also include companies in the business-to-business, financial services, and biotechnology, pharmaceutical and medical device market sectors. Fantasia has also brought technology back into the fold. He expects the organization's strong growth to continue.
