Treeline's Daniel S. Fantasia Wins Stevie® Award for Best Executive at the 6th Annual American Business AwardsSM
Firm is also a Finalist in Best Overall Company and Best Sales Organization Categories

Wakefield, Massachusetts: June 15, 2008: Treeline Founder and President Daniel S. Fantasia received a Stevie® Award for Best Executive at the 6th Annual Selling Power American Business AwardsSM. The event took place on June 10 at the Marriott Marquis in New York City. It was hosted by Cheryl Casone of Fox Business Network and broadcast nationwide on radio by the Business TalkRadio Network. The American Business Awards are presented by Selling Power magazine, the leading sales management publication with 145,000 subscribers in 67 countries.

Treeline, the nation's premier executive search firm focused exclusively on sales, also reached the final round of judging in two other categories including: Best Overall Company and Best Sales Organization.

"I am honored to have been named a Stevie AwardSM winner," said Fantasia, "It's incredible to be chosen by your peers from among such an impressive group of finalists. They are truly America's best. I'd also like to thank the entire Treeline team. It is their talent, dedication and tireless energy that have made Treeline so successful. This is their award."

Stevie Awards were presented in over 40 categories including Best Overall Company, Best Executive, and Best Corporate Social Responsibility Program. More than 2,600 entries from companies of all sizes and in virtually every industry were submitted for consideration.

Members of the Awards' Board of Distinguished Judges & Advisors and their staffs selected the American Business Award winners from among the Finalists. Finalists were chosen by business professionals worldwide during preliminary judging in April and May 2008.

"Being named as an American Business Award Winner is an important achievement," said Gerhard Gschwandtner, founder and publisher of Selling Power. "It means that independent business executives have agreed that the nominee is worthy of international recognition. We congratulate all of the winners on their achievement."
